All the above details are attached with the report.

Mr. Anjesh Kumar, State Coordinator, Bihar Election Watch said, “It is the sorry condition of the state assembly that comes forth from the current analysis. Bihar has maximum number of contestants with pending serious criminal charges against them for the upcoming bye elections. Presence of candidates with criminal background in our legislative bodies is a great threat to democracy. We request voters to check antecedents of the candidates before voting for them.”

Mr. Jagdeep Chhokar, founder member of ADR and NEW said that, “ While every establishment in the country is in the process of making themselves more accountable to citizens, the political parties continue to function in the most irresponsible way by giving tickets to people of dubious background. The utmost need of the hour is to make our political parties more accountable by bringing in a law to regulate them.”
